Hon. Benjamin Hanford of New York, the Socialist candidate for vice-president, who will address a party rally in this city Friday evening from the band stand, is a member of the Typographical union and for a number of years has been prominent in labor movements. Mr. Hanford was selected by the trade unionists to reply to John C. Havemeyer, the sugar trust magnate, when the latter is said to have opened a discussion relative to the attitude and benefit of labor bodies. Mr. Hanford was the socialist candidate for governor of New York in 1898, when the party vote was increased from 12,000 to 23,400.

After the entertainment a box supper and promenade will be held. Ladies are requested to bring boxes. Admission 15 and 10 cents.

Kuropatkin's Difficulties.

General Kuropatkin, Russian military commander in the far east, is reported to have said, when setting forth across Siberia: "The first month they will say that I am inactive, the second that I am incapable, and the third that I am a traitor, because we shall be repulsed and beaten. I shall let the people talk, firmly adhering to my resolution not to advance before July, when I shall have the forces I need." Mr. Charles Johnston, writing in Harper's Weekly, points out that, though we are not compelled to believe this story, it well expresses the difficulties Kuropatkin is facing, for Kuropatkin has been called "to lead an army which he knows to be ill prepared against a foe whose formidable prowess he heartily recognizes in a war of which he almost certainly disapproves from a political not less than from a military standpoint."

Gregorian Chants.

The origin of the Gregorian chants, or plain song, are variously ascribed to the Greeks and the Jews, it being asserted by several writers that the later songs of the service of the synagogue were simply carried over to the service of the Christian church.

A LONG-FELT WANT.

It Is Supplied at Last in Barre.

Good-natured people are often irritable. If you knew the reason, you would not be surprised. Ever have itching piles? Not sick enough to go to bed; not well enough to be content.

The constant itching sensation. Hard to bear, harder to get relief. Spoils your temper, nearly drives you crazy.

Isn't relief and cure a long-felt want? You can have relief and cure if you will follow the advice of a local citizen.

F. S. Sandler (farmer) of West Topsham, says: "I was subject to itching hemorrhoids, commonly called piles, for a number of years despite the use of innumerable salves and ointments brought to my notice by friends and acquaintances and through the Barre newspapers and other sources of information. The malady, disease or complaint, term it what you will, was often bad enough in the winter, but in hot weather the itching and annoyance was unendurable. I heard of Doan's Ointment and got a box at E. A. Brown's drug store in Barre. When it effectually stopped such an old and chronic case as mine, which had resisted every effort on my part to check it, let alone cure, I have often wondered what this remedy would do in the incipient stages of that far too common annoyance, piles."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
